New Artistc Collaboration

Art & Design

We are proud to present our new artistic collaboration with Axel Crieger.

What Axel says about us:

In an era where art, design, fashion, architecture, music and literature melt into one we meet.
You may think that you create furniture this ain't true - you create a different view on life.
In this age creativity and audacity are the currency of the future.
To brake barriers, to do the unexpected and dilute common concepts and perceptions is a long standing artistic practice but in these times it becomes an obligation.
I am looking forward to join you in one of your endeavours.
